Contest Rules

- ★ All OPSEU members in good standing are eligible to apply.
- ★ Any talent can be included, such as singing, dancing, comedy, etc.
- ★ You must submit your performance by email to opseusgottalent@opseu.org
- ★ Your performance can be a maximum of five minutes long.
- ★ Only one performance per person or group will be accepted.
- ★ When submitting your performance, you will need to identify yourself. Be sure to include your name, a contact number, your local number, and the city where you live.
- ★ You will receive an email response confirming receipt of your submission.
- ★ All contributions will be reviewed, with submissions being shortlisted for first, second and third place per region.
- ★ If selected, you must commit to being available to perform at Convention on April 19.
- ★ If you're selected, but you're not already a Convention delegate, you'll have travel and expenses covered for one night for the Thursday evening performance.
- ★ All seven finalists will perform at Convention. They'll then be shortlisted by the judges to the final three. Whatever you submitted must be performed in the first round. If you get to the second round, you may perform a selection of your choosing.
- ★ At the performance, there will be a panel of three judges. One of the judges is on the selection committee.
- ★ If the winning performance has more than one performer, the $3,000 prize is to be shared equally among the performers.
- ★ If you have any further suggestions, send an email to opseusgottalent@opseu.org.
- ★ The deadline for submissions is March 2, 2018.
